Aftercare

Aftercare was founded by Emily Paterson (a cousin of Banjo Paterson) in 1907 and now provides planned support services for people with a mental illness and people with an intellectual disability. Many thousands of persons have been assisted to become more independent and live happier and more creative lives. Aftercare services range from 24 hour adolescent accommodation support to providing support in people's own homes and for residents of licensed boarding houses. Funding is through the NSW Dept of Health and the NSW Ageing, Disability and Homecare and FACHSIA.
