

Standard 9: Service development

The MHS is managed effectively and efficiently to facilitate the delivery of co-ordinated and integrated services

Created by Members and Staff of Billabong Clubhouse, Tamworth

The hands represent and are symbolic of the way service delivery is co-ordinated through people. While there are many facets to the Standard, so too there are many facets and differences in those that both deliver and receive the service.